(c) whether Government are contemplating to take the same steps in other parts of the country for the quick disposal of large numebr of pending cases;

(d) if so, the details thereof and by when the steps are likely to be taken; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI O. RAJAGOPAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Chief Judicial Magistrate of Baroda (Gujarat) is holding the court, once in a week, in the Jail premises.

(c) to (e) The Chief Justice of India (CJI), vide his letter dated 19.11.1999, has impressed upon all the Chief Justices of High Courts that every Chief Metropolitan or the Chief Judicial Magistrate of the area, in which a District jail falls may hold his court once or twice in a month, depending upon the workload, in jail to take up the cases of those undertrial prisoners who are involved in petty offences and are keen to confess their guilt. The CJI has further suggested that "Legal Aid Counsel" may be deputed in jails to help such prisoners and move applications on their behalf on the basis of which the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate or the Chief Judicial Magistrate may direct the investigating agency to expedite the filing of the policy report.

In pursuance of the orders passed on 13.10.1999 and 7.12.1999 by the Supreme Court of India, in the case—R.D. Upadhyay Vs State of Andhra Pradesh & Others, the Central Government has also written to all the state Government and UT Administrations to take urgent necessary steps for expeditious disposal of cases of undertrials who are languishing in various jails in the country.

Most of the State Governments have also appointed Special Judicial/ Metropolitan Magistrates for the disposal of petty criminal cases, including traffic cases.
